

McRAH Concluding Symposium

June 12, 2004

McCormick Auditorium

8:00 – 8:15 am	Coffee & registration
8:15 – 8:30	Welcome	Linda Meczyk Dawn Abt-Perkins
8:30 – 9:00	Panel Session: “The Constitution: We live it, but what does it mean to us?”	Moderator: Michael Ebner Cliff Turner Carolyn Blanda Phyllis Libbin Responder: Catherine Weidner
9:15 – 9:45	“Waukegan, IL: Building the Future on the Roots of the Past”	Christine Morris
9:45 – 10:15	“The Effects of Infectious Disease During the Civil War”	Sandy Thomas
11:00 – 12:00	Keynote Address	Stephen Schutt Donaldo Batiste Michael Ebner Kenneth T. Jackson
1:15 – 1:50	“Applying McRAH to the High School Classroom”	Moderator: Catherine Weidner Dan Ring Jackie Roche Joe O’Brien Responder: Art Zilversmit

2:00 – 2:30	“Imperialism: Past and Present - A Student-Centered Fishbowl Discussion”	Jackie Roche & students
2:45 – 3:30	“An Unanticipated Consequence: How the Faculty Changed”	Moderator: Dawn Abt-Perkins Henry Binford Heidi Moisan Steve Rosswurm Carl Smith
3:30 – 4:00	“Lessons from McRAH: Looking to the Past & the Future”	Rachel Ragland Michael Ebner

Johnson 100

9:15 – 9:45	“Pigs of the World Unite!: The Devolution of a Utopian Ideal”	Sheryl Kabak
9:45 – 10:15	“An English Teacher’s Perspective on Incorporating History into the Classroom”	Ali Schultz
2:00 – 2:30	“Pardon and Franchise”	Nichole Farris

Johnson 200

9:15 – 9:45	“Thinking Like an Historian in the Middle School: The Boston Massacre”	Sue Havert
9:45 – 10:15	“How to Successfully Engage Students in American History Lessons Using Laser Disc Technology”	Rick Holtz
2:00 – 2:30	“World War II in Europe: Small Pictures of The Big War”	Paul Friedrich

Johnson 300

9:45 – 10:15	“Transforming Text into Lesson Plan: Using Davidson & Lytle’s After the Fact to Create a Classroom Lesson on Historiography”	Joe Brysiewicz
--------------	---	----------------

Johnson Lobby

(Poster Sessions)

10:15 – 11:00

“A Ritzy-Glitzy Look at the 1920’s/ 1930’s”

Gary Anderson

“Research in the Social Studies Classroom”

Laura Brandt

“What is History?”

Craig Leeper

“Contrasting Native American Approaches to Dealing with the U.S. Government”

Lynn Pattison

“Top Secret: Events Leading Up to the Civil War”

Paul Spatafore

Deerpath Patio

12:00 – 1:00

Lunch

4:00 – 5:00

Reception